

2010 Ohio Equine Affair
Clinician, Caroline Rider,
Tao of Horsemanship Presents
Riding As One
3-Day Intro Clinic

The foundation of Caroline's Pleasure Dressage - where the Art of Horsemanship meets Classical Dressage! This clinic focuses on feel and timing while employing technique with the softest of hearts, the lightest of hands and deepest of seats.

May 18 - 20, 2012

Cost: $710/participant

Private Lessons Available
Monday 21, 2012: $135/hour

Where: Millbury, OH
(30 miles south of Toledo, OH)

To register contact:
Sally@ddb39@aol.com or call: 419-476-4237

Riding as One is for the everyday rider who wants to improve their level of riding while deepening the connection, and relationship, they share with their horse.

This style of horsemanship not only crosses over and merges the worlds of Classical Dressage with the Art of Horsemanship it creates the foundation where ease of mind, simplicity of technique, and partnership become the guiding principles to a lifetime of learning together.

Caroline's Riding as One Intro clinic is ideal for those who want to:

Create deeper connection, communication and partnership - exercises that create mind/body alignment both on the ground and when riding

Improve their riding - whether it's about acquiring a balanced, centered seat, gaining confidence and/or moving as "one" and in harmony

Gain a deeper understanding of horsemanship through feel, sensory awareness and leadership principles - Ride "light," both with aids and equipment

Understanding footfall - beginning "the dance"

And most of all, enhancing the level of relationship, through deeper awareness and mind-body integration

Obstacle courses are included!

Visit www.riderhorsemanship.com for more information.

